Fulton has a new fair association.
Fulton—A purse; call at this office.
"M. J." your obituary will appear next week.

Mexico must have a Mardi Gras next year.
M. Nelson's saw mill is doing a big business.

If Mexico don't boom this spring we are gone.
Jefferson City is to have street cars and water-works.

Lost—A cane, marked J. W. D. Return to this office.

"BARNES" should have the benefit of any and all doubts.

Born, to Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Lemon, Monday, a daughter.

Dr. Gartrell's loss has been adjusted by Kilgore & Howell.

Feb. 22nd is Washington's birthday. Lent begins on the 23d.

W. W. Harper is in St. Louis buying a full line of spring goods.

The Stoddard Society meets at Mrs. J. D. McKee's at 2 p. m. Thursday.

Born, to O. P. Campbell and wife, formerly of this city, now of Kansas, a girl.

The entertainment of the season will be the Bensberg concert Friday night.

The combination horse sale will take place at L. B. Morris' livery stable.

R. Hildebrand has a sale 1 1/2 miles southeast of Benton, Friday, February 18th.

You can get pants at Bricker's from $9 up. He will make you a first class fit.

The Southern Bank is having a new lithograph made of ex-Gov. C. H. Hardin to be used on their drafts.

R. M. White, Chief of the Fire company, is arranging to have an electric fire alarm bell put in his residence.

Congress has only to quietly wait and pass a few more pension bills and the surplus problem will settle itself.

E. C. Wilson, 13 miles north of this city, broke his leg at the hip Sunday, while feeding stock. He is 70 years old.

Mr. F. M. Yeager, of this city, desires to number the houses of Mexico, and will likely ask the permission of the council at their next meeting to do the work, for which he will charge the city proper, nothing.

Mrs. Rose, wife of Jacob Rose, a grocery merchant of this city, died at 4 o'clock p. m. to-day, of cancer. She had been sick a long time and had suffered as only those who are afflicted with a cancer.

Morris, 5.

SMALL TALK.

WHAT LEDGER REPORTERS HEARD ON CORNERS YESTERDAY AND TO-DAY.

Gossip on Various Subjects of Interest to People of this City—The Stock Sales—The New Theater.

E. S. Wilson: The most expensive entertainment I ever attended, I believe, was the Mendelssohn Quintette Club, my seat costing something like $38. Ren Gibbs and myself brought the club here, for a single night's engagement, and as the seats did not sell very well, we came out "in the hole," if you will excuse the expression. I have since wished we had stopped the sale of tickets, after it had become known that we would have no house, and allowed the club to go through its programme for Gibbs and myself alone. I expect my seat would have cost me $50 then.

W. H. Miller: I think the stock sales would be just as beneficial to the town if they were placed a block or two from the square, as in their present location. The people could be educated up to attending a stock sale at some place besides the square. I shall, most likely, build my sheds, however, whether the sales are moved or not.

Baggageman Benton, Union Depot: I have handled more baggage in the past three weeks than ever before in a corresponding length of time, and I am nearly broke down, but, I am glad to say, travel is falling off a little, and I may have a few days for a sort of a rest, before it picks up again.

Chas. H. Day: It is impossible to say who will get the contract for building the new theatre, though speculation on the matter is rife among the carpenters and other mechanics of the city. There are two prominent contractors of this place though, who will most likely get it.

Officer Dobyns: If we had a fire bell here as large as any of the church bells, we would have no trouble in waking the people. With the bell we are now using, it takes a great deal of hard work to raise anyone.

Joe Weiner: I think I shall go to Moberly on the 22nd to hear Goetzle. I intended going last month, but was so busy I could not get away.

Rain did not keep the politicians off the corners.

B. F. Dobyns thinks a primary preferable to a convention this spring. Leslie Ferris says his new opera house will be built without fail this coming summer.

John Cave was examining the first invoice of Valentines. He wanted to get a good one for his girl.

You can get all the news in town by dropping into L. B. Morris' stable. It is headquarters for all politicians.

Wm. Coons is of the opinion that the Combination Horse Sale will be a success, and prove beneficial to buyers and sellers.

Joe Moore and Billie Morris were of the opinion that the game law would remain as it was. They did not think St. Louis could run the State.

R. P. Hopkins thought he never saw any better weather to hunt foxes and thought he would take a little run with some friends in Callaway this week.

Roy Stuart is a dandy with crayon. The first picture he made attracted a great deal of attention in the window of C. Wade's furniture store. Stuart is an artist and no mistake.

Frank Turner and all the citizens of Northwest Mexico agree with the Ledger, that the bodies in the old cemetery should be removed. This matter is worthy of being looked into.

Henry Woodward, one of the Central Committee from the First ward, says he likes a primary only where so many candidates offer it gives a minority man the best show for nomination.

J. R. Bragg says he never saw so many sudden changes in the weather as we have had this winter. He thinks we have not had a bad winter; times being hard makes a cool snap feel like a cold spell.

Our Ab. says the opera house will have a thousand people. He says there was over a $500 house to hear Janauschek; the Quintette Club, and Blind Tom both had about the same kind of houses. He thinks Talmage will beat the record.

Ren Gibbs is of the opinion that many will be turned away from Talmage's lecture. The sale of seats will open at Dobyns & Gibbs' the 1st day of March. No one can buy a seat prior to that time.

S. W. Bickley says he wants to hear Talmage lecture on the subject of "Big Blunders." Bickley is of the opinion that there are plenty of big blunders committed, but the people who commit them won't admit it. They can always see the blunder of others, but never their own.

Emmett Cunningham, Supt. of the Water-works Co., is of the opinion that if the Mexico Fire Co. had a hose reel, which could be drawn by a horse, the Fire Company would be complete. The old engine and old hose reel sold and the money put in such a reel. This, with a new fire bell, would fix the company all right.

Royal Arch Chapter meets Friday night. All members are expected to be present to take part in the work.

H. Easter received this morning direct from Sweden, a case containing about a million Swedish matches.

Combination Sale.

To the Editor of the Ledger.

MEXICO, MO., January 22.—We will receive entries of stock from now until Feb. 20, 1887, to be sold at our combination sale March 5th, at Mexico, Mo. We have a surplus of stock, so have many of our friends, and we adopt this mode of bringing the seller and buyer together, believing it will be advantageous to both. Each animal will be as truly represented as possible, and no man is required to receive an animal bought at the sale unless he is found to be as represented. It is understood and positively agreed, that any one placing an animal in this sale will make no bid on the same but all the stock will be sold upon its merits. We will consider ourselves as much the agent of the buyer as the seller and still see that the rights of both are protected. There will be charged a small fee for selling, not more than 3 per cent, aiming to charge only enough for advertising and other expenses. Under the above terms, we respectfully solicit all who have a surplus of stock, such as stallions, jacks, jennets, horses, mares or mules for sale, to send in a full description of the same on or before the 20th of February. We will advertise them well in pamphlet form and circulate the same extensively over the country. We will also advertise in the newspapers of this and adjoining counties and use all honorable means to make the sale a success.

41-4f CLARK & POTTS.

Look out for Fun.

Miss Ella June Meade will appear at opera house, Feb. 10, 1887, in her great character representations and recitations, "Joan de Arc," the "Mormon Wife," songs, ballads, etc., "Imitations," "The Herdsman's Horn," "Violin Talk," etc., will appear as above, and is said to be the great popular attraction of the day. See what the St. Joseph Gazette says of her below:

A most appreciative audience gathered at Mendelssohn Hall last night to witness the entertainment given by Ella June Meade assisted by the St. Joseph Quartet. She is a wonderfully gifted woman, with a rarely cultivated voice, and powers of mimicry that are seldom seen in one of her sex. Her greatest successes last night were "The Herdsman's Horn," and "How Grand was the Union."

Violin Talk is an entertainment in itself. The entertainment closed with a most laughable sketch of "Mormon Wife No. 1" on the arrival of No. 21. No Shook the lady ever come to St. Joseph again she will be accorded a crowded house.

Discretion of Judges.
To the Editor of the Ledger.

MEXICO, MO., February 8.—I learn that Judge Kregel, on November 16, 1886, fined Gus Klaus and Fred Heckman fifty dollars each for buying unstamped cigars in violation of Sec. 3404. In this case the parties plead guilty and Judge Kregel after hearing the statements of Klaus and Heckman made an order that upon their payment of the costs that had accrued execution of the judgments as to the fines should be suspended until next March, and required only the personal recognizance of said parties for the payment of said fines. For this action there is, nor should there be, any fault. There is no one who knows the facts but thinks he did the proper thing. What would the public think of a grand jury, or any other body of men, that would array Judge Kregel for such use of his discretion? E. C. W.

The Pick List.

Judge J. P. Clark, who has been very sick for some weeks, is about able to be out.
Jacob Ruloff, who was partially paralyzed Thursday, is better.
Mrs. J. Wick Mason is better.
D. Hubble is still very sick.
Joe Murray is convalescing at El Dorado Springs.
Mrs. A. C. Adams, of Auxvasse, is very sick.

The O. U. V. Snubs Sullivan.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 4.—The Grand Lodge A. O. U. V. adopted a resolution to-day condemning the action of John A. Cameron Lodge of New York in admitting John L. Sullivan, the prize fighter, into membership in the order.

Mrs. A. C. Adams, of Auxvasse, whose illness has been mentioned in the Ledger, is better.

"TALKED OF."

A Complete List of Those Who Will Probably Make the Race For the City Offices.

A LEDGER reporter, in order to present to the readers of this paper, in an intelligent manner, the names of the probable candidates for the city offices, made a tour of the various political headquarters this morning. The results of his investigation are about as follows: The office most sought for, thus far, is that of the City Marshal and Collector, there being six or seven either announced or talked of for that position, among whom are Jas. R. Marshall, at present a night watchman, who has made an efficient officer; J. T. Field, wagon manufacturer; A. M. Harrison, brick manufacturer; John Lane, butcher; W. K. Potts, ice and coal dealer; and Andrew Surber, the present incumbent. For the office of MAYOR, no one has been announced, as yet, and it is understood that Mr. Emmons will not likely apply for re-election. Thus far, only two gentlemen have been spoken of for the position; Rufus Hisey, of the Mexico City Mills, and J. C. Bassford, who has formerly held that office. Neither gentleman, however, is announced.

The probable candidates for City Attorney are nearly as plentiful as the seekers after the office of Marshal and Collector, those mentioned up to date being F. C. Bryan, John M. Gordon, and S. W. Bickley, all attorneys of this city, and W. B. McIntire, the present officer. For Recorder, B. F. Tomlinson, the present officer will be a candidate, while E. S. Frost and John Roseberry are talked of for the same position. Each of the six wards, it is understood, has a possible candidate or two for

THE CITY COUNCIL.

W. O. Johnson, George Gill, Frank Tucker and others being mentioned in the First, as the present councilman, Mr. Duncan, will not be a candidate for re-election. The Second warders talk some of electing either G. L. Ferris or J. H. Bickley, as Mr. Jones retires. In the Third Ward, as Mr. Wincott has about concluded not to "run" again, John J. Steele and Silas Gilbert are mentioned, but their candidacy is by no means certain. A great many of the Fourth Ward voters want the veteran Pratt to serve them another year, though A. D. Jackson is spoken of. No one is announced. In the Fifth, Mr. Hinton, who has served his constituents faithfully for a year, will be a candidate for re-election, with opposition, it is pretty generally understood, in the person of Wm. C. Gamble. Ragsdale will try for another term, in the Sixth, with no opponent, as yet.

Though the election is nearly two months distant, a great deal of interest is being taken, and considerable fun is expected, with so many candidates in sight this early in the campaign, it looks as if by election day they will outnumber the voters.

Election of Officers.

At the regular meeting, Feb. 8th, of the Mexico Local No. 53, Farmers' and Mechanics' Mutual Aid Association, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Eld. W. H. Hook, President. Geo. Kabrich, Vice-President. Geo. Hablutzel, Secretary and Deputy. Mrs. M. J. Brown, Treasurer. Dr. J. H. Crawford, Medical Examiner. Committee on sick and poor.—J. M. Coons, Mrs. S. Kabrich and Mrs. R. E. Roberts. Committee on finance and room.—Geo. Kabrich, W. W. Allen. Committee on applications.—Milton Douglas, N. M. Roberts.

PERSONAL MENTION.

B. L. Locke is in Kansas City. Mrs. Dr. Rothwell is in Auxvasse. Mrs. Chas. Backner is in Auxvasse. W. A. Harding, Hatton, is in the city. Miss Lucy Sanders, of Slater, is visiting friends here. Clarence Buell was in Mexico to-day, very much improved in health. Mrs. Eugene Campbell, of Slater, is visiting relatives in West Mexico. Miss Lee Smith and Annie Miller, of this city, and W. D. Jolly are visiting in Fulton. Miss Georgia Armstrong, of Hannibal, who has been visiting Miss Leona Williams, went to Louisiana to-day. John Davis, W. R. Carter, A. G. Turner and A. M. Harrison go to Columbia to-night to attend a combination horse sale there.

All the Details.

Little Dot—Mamma, Dick and I got married this morning. Mamma—You did, did you? Who performed the ceremony? "I don't know what you're talking about." "Well, how did you make out your wedding?" "Oh! Why I got my dishes and set the table and then we both sat down, and he said there wasn't a thing fit to eat, and I said he was as ugly as he could be, and he went out and slammed the door."

Wonderful Hog.

From the New York Sun.
Farmer Redmond, near Sturgeon, Mo., owned a hog that was afflicted with inability to breathe through its nose, so he trained it to carry a cob in its mouth to keep its jaws open so that it could breathe. For the past four years the hog has been going around with a cob. When it wanted to eat it laid down its cob, and when it got tired picked it up again.

Preparing for Hostilities.

A trombone player has been added to the Marine Band. In view of possible complications with England, it was doubtless wise to begin to strengthen our navy.

The "betting case" has been compromised by the bet being declared a draw, and Frost paying the costs which have accrued since suit was brought.

NOT DECIDED.

The Jury in the Famous Betting Case Cannot agree, and the Case Remains Unsettled.

The Justice court of 'Squire Harris presented quite a lively appearance from 1:30 until late hour Monday afternoon. The famous betting case full particulars of which have been given exclusively in the LEDGER, was being thoroughly aired. The facts in the case, stated briefly, are as follows: Previous to the Democratic primaries, last summer, F. N. Frost made a bet of $50 with Geo. Gill that Clay would receive more votes in the city of Mexico than Locke. The money put up by Frost was owned by himself, S. B. Cook and Frank Coatsworth; the money put up by Gill was owned by E. D. Graham and himself. Ren Gibbs was agreed upon as stakeholder and it was further agreed, Frost claims, that if there was a bet, or walk-out in any ward, the bet was a draw. Gill claims that, according to the terms of the bet, there would be no bet unless the whole of either party walked out. Frost claimed the "split-up" in the second ward was a bet, while the stakeholder, Gibbs, paid the money to Gill. Hence the suit. The interest in the case, for a small affair, was intense, caused, perhaps by the prominence, in business circles, of the parties concerned.

The case occupied the attention of the court for a considerable length of time and the jury, composed of W. K. Potts, E. T. Smith, Wm. Frazier, A. Driver, B. F. Miller, and Silas Gilbert, after being out thirty minutes, returned without a verdict.

Obituary.

Died, at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. J. R. Crittenden Berry, of this county, Mrs. Martha Morehead, aged 74 years. Her maiden name was Martha Threlkeld and she was married to Gilmore S. Morehead of this county in 1840. He was called up higher two years ago. The deceased departed this life on the last day of Nov. 1886. She had for more than forty-six years been serving the Lord in connection with the Christian Church of which she was a faithful and consistent member.

For five years she has been living with death near and imminent, having been smitten with one stroke after another, of paralysis, but, owing to a strong constitution, she would rally in the most remarkable manner, until the last fatal stroke which removed her from the fond care and attention of her large circle of loving children and grandchildren, relatives and friends. But a short time previous to her death it was the writer's privilege to converse with this aged disciple. She expressed in most decided terms, her love for the Savior and her joy in the hope of soon being at home in glory. She said with tears in her eyes: "I love to think of the Lord and I don't dread to die. I have been expecting it a long time." And now she is among the blessed at rest forever.

May we all be faithful unto death, faithful in loving words and deeds, faithful in church and at home. So shall we have a good hope of meeting our dear mother once more, of dwelling with her where there is no sickness, weakness nor the feebleness of age. Youth and vigor and a holy zeal will transform her into a radiant saint of heaven, and Jesus has said: "They shall be like Him for they shall see Him as He is."

The many friends of Rufus Hisey have prevailed upon him to become a candidate for Mayor, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Hisey is identified with the business interests of Mexico, and is heart and soul for forwarding the various enterprises which will place Mexico in front of any town of her size. He is a man who never turns back when he puts his hand to the plow. We are glad to see such a man willing to spare his time from his various private business enterprises to assist in building up our town. Mexico, with such men in charge of her business enterprises, is bound to boom.

We learn there is a gentleman of this city, who will number the houses without cost to the city if the Council will permit. If he knows his business and will do the work right he should have the permission.

Miss Kate Bousberg, the Bianca has a fresh, clear voice, and sang admirably.—N. Y. World.

Opera House Friday, Feb. 11th.

IN TWO MINUTES.

Meat Broiled in Less Than Two Minutes—Biscuits Cooked in Little or no Time.

As announced in the LEDGER yesterday, Ferris and Son had on exhibition to-day a Charter Oak Range with wire gauze door, with which beef steak was cooked in one and one-half minutes, and biscuits in a proportionate short length of time. One feature of the wire gauze door stove is that cooking can be done with one-half the heat necessary in an ordinary stove. A large crowd was present throughout the day, and everybody was highly pleased with the exhibition.

Thursday's Weddings.

Dr. Vandeventer and Miss Lucy Mosby will be married Thursday. The wedding of Prof. L. P. Crigler and Miss Kunkle will take place at the residence of the bride Thursday. State Senator Mackay, of Chariton county, will be married at Auxvasse Thursday to Mrs. Emma J. Hill, of that place. The following attorneys are attending court here: W. H. Biggs, Hon. E. Robinson, and Capt. W. H. Morrow, of Louisiana; Judge J. D. Barnett, Montgomery; E. T. Smith, Bowling Green; Hon. Sol. Hughtell, Wellsville; Hon. N. D. Thurmond, Fulton; Hon. R. H. Norton, Troy, and Judge Dimmitt, of New London.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

Thos. H. Jones vs. C. & A. Railroad, jury failed to agree. Geo. H. Hogue vs. Hannibal & St. Louis Railroad, trial by the court, no verdict. Margaret Carter et al vs. Jas. R. Long et al, now being tried.

A partially built frame house, at New Bloomfield, owned by Pollard & Yates, druggist, of Fulton, was intended for a branch drug store, was blown down and completely demolished by the severe wind Monday night.
